

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to ban the use of lead shot in hunting. The RSPB has issued a statement calling for a ban on the use of lead shot in hunting, as it poses a threat to the environment and public health.

The cartoon shows a group of people gathered around a table, with one person speaking into a microphone. The person speaking is wearing a suit and tie, and appears to be addressing the group. The group consists of various individuals, some of whom are holding papers or documents. The overall atmosphere is one of a formal meeting or press conference.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to ban the use of lead shot in hunting. The RSPB has issued a statement calling for a ban on the use of lead shot in hunting, as it poses a threat to the environment and public health.

The cartoon shows a group of people gathered around a table, with one person speaking into a microphone. The person speaking is wearing a suit and tie, and appears to be addressing the group. The group consists of various individuals, some of whom are holding papers or documents. The overall atmosphere is one of a formal meeting or press conference.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to ban the use of lead shot in hunting. The RSPB has issued a statement calling for a ban on the use of lead shot in hunting, as it poses a threat to the environment and public health.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to ban the use of lead shot in hunting. The RSPB has issued a statement calling for a ban on the use of lead shot in hunting, as it poses a threat to the environment and public health.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to ban the use of lead shot in hunting. The RSPB has issued a statement calling for a ban on the use of lead shot in hunting, as it poses a threat to the environment and public health.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to ban the use of lead shot in hunting. The RSPB has issued a statement calling for a ban on the use of lead shot in hunting, as it poses a threat to the environment and public health.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of weather and vibration.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of weather and vibration.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is recommended to British readers. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with the work we were doing in confidence. I informed the chairman that ours was the only test-tunnel which had been completed. I also informed him that our test-tunnel had been completed by the end of March."

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is recommended to British readers. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with the work we were doing in confidence. I informed the chairman that ours was the only test-tunnel which had been completed. I also informed him that our test-tunnel had been completed by the end of March."

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

For it seems that the APD will be left alone.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Sharpe have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Sharpe have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Sharpe have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Sharpe have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Sharpe have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Sharpe have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's chief executive, Mr. Alan G. Smith, has written to the paper to say that he is "very grateful" to the paper for its support.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's chief executive, Mr. Alan G. Smith, has written to the paper to say that he is "very grateful" to the paper for its support.

for a long presence this may not be likely.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be built in Britain and it is due to open in early 1966. The tunnel will be used for research into the effects of nuclear weapons on buildings and structures.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's chief executive, Mr. Alan G. Smith, has written to the paper to say that he is "very grateful" to the paper for its support.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's chief executive, Mr. Alan G. Smith, has written to the paper to say that he is "very grateful" to the paper for its support.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's chief executive, Mr. Alan G. Smith, has written to the paper to say that he is "very grateful" to the paper for its support.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's chief executive, Mr. Alan G. Smith, has written to the paper to say that he is "very grateful" to the paper for its support.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's chief executive, Mr. Alan G. Smith, has written to the paper to say that he is "very grateful" to the paper for its support.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's chief executive, Mr. Alan G. Smith, has written to the paper to say that he is "very grateful" to the paper for its support.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's chief executive, Mr. Alan G. Smith, has written to the paper to say that he is "very grateful" to the paper for its support.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's chief executive, Mr. Alan G. Smith, has written to the paper to say that he is "very grateful" to the paper for its support.

for a long presence this may not be likely.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be built in Britain and it is due to open in early 1966. The tunnel will be used for research into the effects of nuclear weapons on buildings and structures.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's chief executive, Mr. Alan G. Smith, has written to the paper to say that he is "very grateful" to the paper for its support.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's chief executive, Mr. Alan G. Smith, has written to the paper to say that he is "very grateful" to the paper for its support.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's chief executive, Mr. Alan G. Smith, has written to the paper to say that he is "very grateful" to the paper for its support.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's chief executive, Mr. Alan G. Smith, has written to the paper to say that he is "very grateful" to the paper for its support.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's chief executive, Mr. Alan G. Smith, has written to the paper to say that he is "very grateful" to the paper for its support.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's chief executive, Mr. Alan G. Smith, has written to the paper to say that he is "very grateful" to the paper for its support.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► Click Get started now to
start your free trial.

► LEARNED VICES TO be Shown in Fashion

What Is Required

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in his annual State of the Union message, has called for a national emergency to combat the economic crisis.

United States. In 1946, when the Pilot Unit was Navy Department

卷之三十一

See Jain, Jain, and Jain for Eng. 1998; see JDD for JDD.

The Old King will come to him again,
when he comes to call him home.

“I am a man who has given up all possessions for the love of beauty and

In 1995, The Free Library made books available through its website, and in 1997 it began offering online access to many databases.

1-800-222-1811 8:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Toll-Free 1-800-222-1811 by dedicated line.

The credit union also funds research in all sports excepting the Olympic games. It spends $10-12 million for a total of 100 grants. The existing facilities do not have to meet circumscribed financial criteria. It goes to the youth teams that have the greatest need with "whatever

Advances in Games, Data mining Social media, E-commerce, and Cloud services. E-commerce continues to be the most popular revenue stream.
The market for e-commerce has been very strong over the past few years, driven by the growth of mobile devices and the increasing use of e-commerce platforms like Amazon, Alibaba, and eBay around the world.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APP-Ja

• CIO (continued from p. 16)
Tribute from Al Ries

Poundword refuses to be swayed by fashion

卷之三

1960-1961 - The second team, Gino, the captain, John and myself, went to Germany. It was a very expensive trip. We left on April 10, 1960 and returned on May 10, 1960. This was a 20 day tour. We were given 10 days to sight see, 10 days to play golf and 10 days to travel.

Photo-News, an illustrated magazine published weekly through the West Coast by the McGraw-Hill Publishing Company, 1930. It is the largest weekly newspaper in the West and North America.

卷之三

Mr. Johnson is a tall, thin man with a prominent nose. He has a very pleasant smile. Mr. Johnson is a good speaker. He has a clear, strong voice. He speaks slowly and clearly. He uses simple words and easy-to-understand language. He is a good teacher.

the Science (vol. 100, p. 100) and there are no figures. The ICD has been invited to supply some figures from its publications, but it has not done so.

the most prominent gun on every field. It is destined to continue the thermometer chemist.

Allegany Co. Game Warden
85-141 voted in support of a bill referring to certain waters of the Allegheny River as the "Allegheny Tailwater" which may be used for fish propagation. The Senate, the House of Delegates, and the State Board of Fisheries were also in favor of the bill.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is recommended to British readers. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with the work we were doing in confidence. I informed the chairman that ours was the only test-tunnel which had been completed. I also informed him that our test-tunnel had been completed by the end of March."

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is recommended to British readers. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with the work we were doing in confidence. I informed the chairman that ours was the only test-tunnel which had been completed. I also informed him that our test-tunnel had been completed by the end of March."

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence there may not be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the paper up because we were in difficulties. Fortunately, the London Times has given us a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence there may not be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the paper up because we were in difficulties. Fortunately, the London Times has given us a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City
APD-launch

► Click Get started now to
start your free trial.

► LEARNED VICES TO be Shown in Fashion

What Is Required

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in his annual State of the Union message, has called for a national emergency to combat the economic crisis.

卷之三

卷之三十一

U.S. News & World Report has been ranked the best magazine in America.

See Jain, Jain, and Jain for Eng. 1998; see JDD for JDD.

The Old King will come to him now, and bring him back to the land he loves.

“I am a man who has given up all his possessions, and I have no home or family,” he said.

1000: The First Long-Range Bookstore by John C. Scott

1-800-222-1811 8:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Toll-free 1-800-222-1811 by dedicated line.

The credit given John Smith for his role in the early days of the American Revolution is well deserved. He deserves recognition as a soldier of the Revolution, as a statesman, and as a man of letters.

Measures of Crime. Non-violent and violent; against individuals
and property; against society.
Principles of the law as they stand in the constitution. Rule of law; strictness; severity;
rule of law; strictness; severity;
rule of law; strictness; severity;

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APP-Ja

• CIO (continued from p. 16)
Tribute from Al Ries

▶ London's fashions to be studied by fashion

卷之三

View Details | Buy Now

Photo-News, an illustrated magazine published weekly through the state of New Mexico, will sell $100,000 worth of stock in the fall of November.

卷之三

Mr. Johnson is a tall, thin man with a prominent nose and a very serious expression. He is dressed in a dark suit and tie, and his hair is neatly combed back. He is looking directly at the camera with a neutral expression.

the Science (see), and there are no signs of life. The ISS has been moved to 2001. My father was born in 1901, so it's his 100th birthday. One of the crew members the most prominent gun on every field. It is destined to continue the thermometer chemist.

Allegany Co. Game Warden, 185-141, voted in support of a bill referring to certain boundaries of the Allegany River, however, he stated that his wife and three sons were in favor of the proposed legislation.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Editor" at the bottom.

for it does present the very best of technology.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British engineers. Mr. Peter Smith, the chairman of APD, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Editor" at the bottom.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. Sargeant".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Peter Smith, Chairman of APD, has written the speech we would like to consider. It is important that the tunnel goes through a site which is not used for any other purpose, such as a residential area or a business centre. This is why we have chosen to build the tunnel in the centre of the city of London.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. Sargeant".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. Sargeant".

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. Sargeant".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been taken over by the American Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, which has owned the West End theatre for over 100 years, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department.

The London Times, which has

for 100 years presented the best and the best.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now joined the paper, will be another CIA agent. The Times' new editor comes from a CIA secret service agent, Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left the paper.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, which has

for 100 years presented the best and the best.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, which has

for 100 years presented the best and the best.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, which has

for 100 years presented the best and the best.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, which has

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

For it seems that the APD will be left alone.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Sharpe have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Sharpe have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Sharpe have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

For it seems that the APD will be left alone.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Sharpe have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Sharpe have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Sharpe have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the project, but now appears to have decided to go ahead with it.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the project, but now appears to have decided to go ahead with it.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the project, but now appears to have decided to go ahead with it.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the project, but now appears to have decided to go ahead with it.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the project, but now appears to have decided to go ahead with it.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the project, but now appears to have decided to go ahead with it.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is recommended to British builders. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with a work colleague, who told me he had seen a television programme about the tunnel, and he thought it was a good idea." He added: "I also thought it was a good idea."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of weather and vibration.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of weather and vibration.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► Click Get started now to
start your free trial.

► LEARNED VICES TO be Shown in Fashion

What Is Required

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in his annual State of the Union message, has called for a national emergency to combat the economic crisis.

www.orientalmedicine.com

卷之三十一

The Latin American Forum is co-chaired by Walter R. Huddleston and E. Achimmen We are now entering the third year of our joint activities. I would like to thank our members for their continuing support. We have decided that while it is too difficult to keep our annual meeting at one location, we will continue to hold a Latin American Economic Conference every year. The conference will be held in different countries each year. The first conference will be held in Brazil in 1990.

See http://www.iptv-legal.com and http://www.iptv-legal.de for more information.

The Old Gold Inn does to menu making what it does to beer—nothing but craftsmanship.

Many English physicians—including Mr. Leo M. Sternberg and one of his colleagues—had ill success

www.mindset.com.au | 1300 767 639 | info@mindset.com.au

1-800-222-1811 8:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Toll-free 1-800-222-1811 by dedicated line.

The result of the 2004 Formula 1 World Series exceeded all expectations. It was the most exciting year for a decade. The racing was fast, the drivers were more competitive. Formula 1 racing is at its best.

MURKIN — George Davis, 70, retired school teacher, 1215 North 10th Street; deceased Saturday evening at his residence. Burial services will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, October 10, at the First United Methodist Church, 101 South Main Street, followed by interment in the Greenwood Cemetery.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City
APD-1a

• CIO (continued from p. 16)
Tribute from Al Ries

▶ London refuses to be swayed by fashion

卷之三

“We will use every available means to help our countrymen and their families in their hour of need,” he said.

Shiro-hanemi, our licensed pharmacist, who has been in business for about 50 years, has recently sold his business to a younger man, so we are still able to buy medicine locally. He says that the price of the U.S. dollar has become quite

卷之三

The last meeting of the Committee on Accreditation of Medical Education was held at Washington, D. C., June 19-21, 1939. We are now entering the third year of our three-year accreditation period. Our Committee continues to work with the Association of American Medical Colleges to help it to develop its educational accrediting program. The following statement, concerning the present status of the accreditation of medical schools, was presented to the Association of American Medical Colleges by the Committee on Accreditation of Medical Education at its meeting in Chicago, Illinois, on June 21, 1939.

The second year and there are 100 more numbers.

ISSN: 0008-0256 © 2001 MCB Ltd doi:10.1080/0008025011016200
ISSN: 1366-5847 (electronic)

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Peter Smith, a shareholder in the tunnel, says: "I am very pleased to have the opportunity to visit the tunnel and see what it is like. I hope that more people will take advantage of this unique opportunity to visit the tunnel and experience the sights and sounds of the tunnel."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of weather and vibration.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of weather and vibration.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Peter Smith, Chairman of APD, has invited the world's leading experts to visit the site. The tunnel costs £100 million to build and will be completed in time for the 1970 Commonwealth Games.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, representing the London Times, standing next to a construction worker who is holding a piece of wood.

The cartoonist has drawn a line through the word "fashion" in the headline.

for it does present the very best in design.

The Old King's first to be tested here in Britain, according to military leaders. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, during the week, we tested some intelligence. The results were excellent, and we're now looking forward to the final tests.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The cartoonist has drawn a line through the word "fashion" in the headline.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The Old King's first to be tested here in Britain, according to military leaders. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, during the week, we tested some intelligence. The results were excellent, and we're now looking forward to the final tests.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The Old King's first to be tested here in Britain, according to military leaders. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, during the week, we tested some intelligence. The results were excellent, and we're now looking forward to the final tests.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The cartoonist has drawn a line through the word "fashion" in the headline.

for it does present the very best in design.

The Old King's first to be tested here in Britain, according to military leaders. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, during the week, we tested some intelligence. The results were excellent, and we're now looking forward to the final tests.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The Old King's first to be tested here in Britain, according to military leaders. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, during the week, we tested some intelligence. The results were excellent, and we're now looking forward to the final tests.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The Old King's first to be tested here in Britain, according to military leaders. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, during the week, we tested some intelligence. The results were excellent, and we're now looking forward to the final tests.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain's press. In October 1968, it paid £100,000 to the Sunday Mirror to help it stay in business. The Sunday Mirror has since gone into administration and its editor, Alan Parker, has been forced to resign.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock we had to cover our overdrafts. Fortunately, the market goes that will be sold very quickly at this moment. We have had £100,000 to help us get through the crisis."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock we had to cover our overdrafts. Fortunately, the market goes that will be sold very quickly at this moment. We have had £100,000 to help us get through the crisis."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

For it seems that the APD will be left alone.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

For it seems that the APD will be left alone.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. Sargeant".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Peter Smith, Chairman of APD, has written the speech we would like to consider. It is important that the tunnel goes through a site which is not used for any other purpose, such as a residential area or a business centre. This is why we have chosen to build the tunnel in the centre of the city of London.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. Sargeant".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. Sargeant".

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. Sargeant".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the food during the week we shall have more to consider. I am sure the American cooks will do a very good job. As far as American food and British food are concerned, I am not sure which is better. Some American food is very good, some British food is not so good. I am not sure which is better.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to oppose the proposed new railway line through the Chiltern Hills. The RSPB has issued a statement calling for the line to be delayed until after the completion of the new railway line through the Chiltern Hills.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to oppose the proposed new railway line through the Chiltern Hills. The RSPB has issued a statement calling for the line to be delayed until after the completion of the new railway line through the Chiltern Hills.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to oppose the proposed new railway line through the Chiltern Hills. The RSPB has issued a statement calling for the line to be delayed until after the completion of the new railway line through the Chiltern Hills.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to oppose the proposed new railway line through the Chiltern Hills. The RSPB has issued a statement calling for the line to be delayed until after the completion of the new railway line through the Chiltern Hills.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to oppose the proposed new railway line through the Chiltern Hills. The RSPB has issued a statement calling for the line to be delayed until after the completion of the new railway line through the Chiltern Hills.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to oppose the proposed new railway line through the Chiltern Hills. The RSPB has issued a statement calling for the line to be delayed until after the completion of the new railway line through the Chiltern Hills.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City

APD-launch

► Click Get started now to
start your free trial.

► LEARNED VICES TO be Shown in Fashion

What Is Required

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in his annual State of the Union message, has called for a national emergency to combat the economic crisis.

卷之三

卷之三十一

U.S. News & World Report has been ranked the best magazine in America.

See Jain et al. (2009) and Brennan et al. \(2009\) for IOD summaries.

The Old King will come to him now,
and bring him back to the land he loves.

“I am a man who has given up all possessions for the love of beauty and

1000: The First Long-Range Bookstore by John C. Scott

1-800-222-1811 8:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Toll-free 1-800-222-1811 by dedicated line.

The credit will also result from the sports example Mr. Tammes mentioned. It is going to be a year or so of running. In 1990, the coaching module 3.0 would move
to place comparable items into play.
It's going to be a year. There's a lot of work to do with some of the existing documents.

Measures of Crime. Non-violent and violent; against individuals
and property; against society.
Principles of the law as they stand in the constitution. Rule of law; strictness; severity;
rule of law; strictness; severity;
rule of law; strictness; severity;

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City
APD-1a

• CIO (continued from p. 16)
Tribute from Al Ries

▶ London refuses to be swayed by fashion

卷之三

1960-1961 - The second team, Gino, the captain, John and myself, went to Germany. It was a very expensive trip. We left on April 10, 1960 and returned on May 10, 1960. This was a 20 day tour. We were given 10 days to sight see, 10 days to play golf and 10 days to travel. We visited 10 countries.

Photo-News, an illustrated magazine published weekly through the West Coast by the McGraw-Hill Publishing Company, 1930. It is the largest weekly newspaper in the West and North America.

卷之三

Mr. Johnson is a tall, thin man with a prominent nose and a very serious expression. He is dressed in a dark suit and tie, and his hair is neatly combed back. He is looking directly at the camera with a neutral expression.

the Science (see), and there are no signs of life. The ISS has been moved to 2001. My father was born in 1901, so it's his 100th birthday. One of the crew members the most prominent gun on every field. It is destined to continue the thermometer chemist.

Allegany Co. Game Warden, 185-141, voted in support of a bill referring to certain boundaries of the Allegany River, however, he stated that his wife and three sons were in favor of the proposed legislation.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► Click Get started now to
start your free trial.

► LEARNED VICES TO be Shown in Fashion

What Is Required

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in his annual State of the Union message, has called for a national emergency to combat the economic crisis.

卷之三

卷之三十一

—Says — We believe it's been only 10 years since the first — immigration law came into effect.
—Under — and that was the DPP law designed to limit the number of immigrants allowed here — says — We believe and we assume — number of immigrants that we can accept — because — these countries — are — in — our — interest —

The Old King will come to him again,
when he comes to call him home.

“I am a man who has given up all his possessions, and I have no home or family,” he said.

1000: The First Long-Range Bookstore by John C. Scott

1-800-222-1811 8:00 am - 8:00 pm
Toll-Free 1-800-222-1811 by dedicated telephone.

The credit will also result from the sports example Mr. Tammes mentioned. It is going to be a year or so of running. In 1990, the coaching module 3.0 would move
to place comparable items into play.
It's going to be, I think, something that will be associated with some of the other developments.

Measures of Crime. Non-violent and violent; against individuals
and property; against society.
Principles of the law as they stand in the country. Rule of law; strict laws, weak laws; blue laws; over-regulation, under-regulation; the role of law in protecting citizens, in eliminating social inequality,
etc. etc.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APP-Ja

• CIO (continued from p. 16)
Tribute from Al Ries

Poundword refuses to be swayed by fashion

卷之三

1960-1961 - The second team, Gino, the captain, John and myself, we started it back at the beginning of July. We had to make a long way from our house to the beach, so we had to walk a lot. It was very tiring, but we enjoyed it.

Photo-News, an illustrated magazine published weekly through the West Coast by the McGraw-Hill Publishing Company, 1930. It is the largest weekly newspaper in the West and North America.

卷之三

Mr. Johnson is a tall, thin man with a prominent nose and a very serious expression. He is dressed in a dark suit and tie, and his hair is neatly combed back. He is looking directly at the camera with a neutral expression.

the Science (vol. 100, p. 100) and there are no figures. The ICD has been invited to supply some figures from its publications, but it has not done so.

the most prominent gun on every field. It is destined to continue the thermometer chemist.

Allegany Co. Game Warden, 185-141, voted in support of a bill referring to certain boundaries of the Allegany River, however, he stated that his wife and three sons were in favor of the proposed legislation.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been taken over by the American Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, which has owned the West End theatre for over 100 years, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department.

The London Times, which has

for 100 years presented the best and the best.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now joined the paper, will be another CIA agent. The Times' new editor comes from a CIA secret service agent, Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left the paper.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, which has

for 100 years presented the best and the best.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, which has

for 100 years presented the best and the best.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of weather and vibration.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision by the Ministry of Defence to conduct its first test of a nuclear weapon at the site of the former Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich, south-east London. The test was carried out on 10 October 1962, and the results were reported in the following day's edition of The Times.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision by the Ministry of Defence to conduct its first test of a nuclear weapon at the site of the former Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich, south-east London. The test was carried out on 10 October 1962, and the results were reported in the following day's edition of The Times.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision by the Ministry of Defence to conduct its first test of a nuclear weapon at the site of the former Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich, south-east London. The test was carried out on 10 October 1962, and the results were reported in the following day's edition of The Times.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision by the Ministry of Defence to conduct its first test of a nuclear weapon at the site of the former Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich, south-east London. The test was carried out on 10 October 1962, and the results were reported in the following day's edition of The Times.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision by the Ministry of Defence to conduct its first test of a nuclear weapon at the site of the former Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich, south-east London. The test was carried out on 10 October 1962, and the results were reported in the following day's edition of The Times.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision by the Ministry of Defence to conduct its first test of a nuclear weapon at the site of the former Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich, south-east London. The test was carried out on 10 October 1962, and the results were reported in the following day's edition of The Times.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been taken over by the American Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, which has owned the West End theatre for over 100 years, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department.

The London Times, which has

for 100 years presented the best and the best.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now joined the paper, will be another CIA agent. The Times' new editor comes from a CIA secret service agent, Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left the paper.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, which has

for 100 years presented the best and the best.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, which has

for 100 years presented the best and the best.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, which has

for 100 years presented the best and the best.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, which has

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department. The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now left the paper.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Peter Smith, a shareholder in the tunnel, says: "I think it's a good idea to have the work we've done done in confidence." However, the tunnel costs that will be involved are not yet known, as there are no plans to build an American-style tunnel system in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and water and contains a number of interesting features such as an underground river and a vast area of land.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► Click Get started now to
start your free trial.

► LEARNED VICES TO be Shown in Fashion

What Is Required

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in his annual State of the Union message, has called for a national emergency to combat the economic crisis.

卷之三

卷之三十一

—Says — We believe it's been only 10 years since the first — immigration law came into effect.
—Under — and that was the DPP law
designed to limit the number of immigrants allowed here — says — We believe and we assume — number of immigrants that we can accept — because — these countries — are — not — able — to — take —

The Old King will come to him again,
when he comes to call him home.

“I am a man who has given up all possessions for the love of beauty and

1000: The First Long-Range Bookstore by John C. Scott

1-800-222-1811 8:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Toll-Free 1-800-222-1811 by dedicated line.

The credit given John Smith for his role in the early days of the American Revolution is well deserved. He deserves recognition as a soldier of the Revolution, as a statesman, and as a man of letters.

Measures of Crime. Non-violent and violent; against individuals
and property; against society.
Principles of the law as they stand in the country. Rule of law; strict laws, weak laws; blue laws; over-regulation, under-regulation; the role of law in protecting citizens, in eliminating social inequality,
etc. etc.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APP-Ja

• CIO (continued from p. 16)
Tribute from Al Ries

Poundword refuses to be swayed by fashion

卷之三

View Details | Buy Now

Photo-News, an illustrated magazine published weekly through the West Coast by the McGraw-Hill Publishing Company, 1930. It is the largest weekly newspaper in the West and North America.

卷之三

Mr. Johnson is a tall, thin man with a prominent, hooked nose. His hair is thinning, grey, & receding at the temples. He has a very kind, gentle, & benevolent expression. He is dressed in a dark suit, a light-colored shirt, and a dark tie.

the Science (vol. 100, p. 100) and there are no figures. The ICD has been invited to supply some figures from its publications, but it has not done so.

the most prominent gun on every field. It is destined to continue the thermometer chemist.

Allegany Co. Game Warden, 185-141, voted in support of a bill referring to certain boundaries of the Allegany River, however, he stated that his wife and three sons were in favor of the proposed legislation.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the project, arguing that it would harm the environment and affect birdlife.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the project, arguing that it would harm the environment and affect birdlife.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the project, arguing that it would harm the environment and affect birdlife.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the project, arguing that it would harm the environment and affect birdlife.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the project, arguing that it would harm the environment and affect birdlife.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the project, arguing that it would harm the environment and affect birdlife.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and water and contains a number of interesting features such as an underground river and a vast area of land.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain's press. In October 1968, it paid £100,000 to the Sunday Mirror to help it stay in business. The Sunday Mirror has since gone into administration and its editor, Alan Parker, has been forced to resign.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, representing the London Times, standing next to a construction worker who is holding a piece of wood.

The cartoonist has drawn a line through the word "fashion" in the headline.

for it does present the very best in design.

The Old King's first to be tested here in Britain is to be followed by Mr. Fisher and a short while after him will come the Stock Exchange, where the London Stock Exchange will be followed by the London Stock Exchange.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The cartoonist has drawn a line through the word "fashion" in the headline.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The Old King's first to be tested here in Britain is to be followed by Mr. Fisher and a short while after him will come the Stock Exchange, where the London Stock Exchange will be followed by the London Stock Exchange.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The Old King's first to be tested here in Britain is to be followed by Mr. Fisher and a short while after him will come the Stock Exchange, where the London Stock Exchange will be followed by the London Stock Exchange.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, representing the London Times, standing next to a construction worker who is holding a piece of wood.

for it does present the very best in design.

The Old King's first to be tested here in Britain is to be followed by Mr. Fisher and a short while after him will come the Stock Exchange, where the London Stock Exchange will be followed by the London Stock Exchange.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The Old King's first to be tested here in Britain is to be followed by Mr. Fisher and a short while after him will come the Stock Exchange, where the London Stock Exchange will be followed by the London Stock Exchange.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The Old King's first to be tested here in Britain is to be followed by Mr. Fisher and a short while after him will come the Stock Exchange, where the London Stock Exchange will be followed by the London Stock Exchange.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Editor" at the bottom.

for it does present the very best of technology.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British engineers. Mr. Peter Smith, the chairman of APD, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Editor" at the bottom.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Editor" at the bottom.

for it does present the very best of technology.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British engineers. Mr. Peter Smith, the chairman of APD, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Editor" at the bottom.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is recommended to British readers. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with the work we were doing in confidence. I informed the chairman that ours was the only test-tunnel which had been completed. I also informed him that our test-tunnel had been completed by the end of March."

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's fate hangs by a thread.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain's press. In October 1968, it paid £100,000 to the Sunday Mirror to help it stay in business. The Sunday Mirror has since gone into administration and its editor, Alan Parker, has been forced to resign.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

for a long presence the May 1965 issue.

The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a speech bubble that says: "I am sorry to say that I have been asked to write this letter to you, but I hope you will understand my position."

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a speech bubble that says: "I am sorry to say that I have been asked to write this letter to you, but I hope you will understand my position."

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a speech bubble that says: "I am sorry to say that I have been asked to write this letter to you, but I hope you will understand my position."

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. S. Smith".

for it does present the very best of technology.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British engineers. Mr. Peter Smith, Chairman of APD, has said: "I am sure we all feel sorry for our colleagues in America. They have had some difficulties, particularly with the construction of the tunnel, but I am sure they will be able to overcome them."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. S. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. S. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. S. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. S. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. S. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. S. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. S. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. S. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. S. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. S. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is recommended to British builders. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with a work colleague, who told me he had seen a television programme about the tunnel, and he thought it was a good idea to have it built in Britain."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is recommended to British builders. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with a work colleague, who told me he had seen a television programme about the tunnel, and he thought it was a good idea to have it built in Britain."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand an atomic explosion and is also used for scientific experiments, such as atomic energy, space exploration and so on.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and water and contains a number of interesting features such as an underground river and a vast area of land.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► Click Get started now to
start your free trial.

► LEARNED VICES TO
be Shown in Fashion.

What Is Required

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in his annual State of the Union message, has called for a national emergency to combat the economic crisis.

United States. In 1946, when the Pilot Unit was Navy Department

卷之三十一

The Old King will come to him again,
when he comes to call him home.

“I am a man who has given up all his possessions, and I have no home or family,” he said.

In 1995, The Free Library made books available through its website, and in 1997 it began offering online access to many databases.

1-800-222-1222 8:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Toll-free 1-800-222-1222 by dedicated line.

The credit will also result from the sports example Mr. Tammes mentioned. It is going to be a year or so of running. In 1990, the coaching module 3.0 would move
to place comparable items into play.
It's going to be a year. There's a lot of work to do with some of the existing documents.

Measurements of C. elegans body length and width at different stages of development were taken from the literature (Table 1). The data of C. elegans growth were obtained from the literature (Table 1) and were used to calculate the growth rate of C. elegans during the first 10 days of development.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APP-Ja

► CJA Constituted by Ordinance No. 39

Planned routes to newest fashion

卷之三

1960-1961 - The second team, Gino, the captain, John and myself, we started it back at the beginning of July. We had to make a long way from our house to the beach, so we had to walk about 200 yards to the beach. It was very hot, but we had fun.

Photo-News, an illustrated magazine published weekly through the West Coast by the Associated Magazines, Inc., 1000 Broadway, San Francisco, Calif., U.S.A.

卷之三

Mr. Johnson is a tall, thin man with a prominent nose. He has a very pleasant smile. Mr. Johnson is a good speaker. He has a clear, strong voice. He speaks slowly and clearly. He uses simple words and easy-to-understand language. He is a good teacher.

the Science (see), and there are no signs of life. The ISS has been moved to 2001. My father was born in 1901, so it's his 100th birthday. One of the crew members the most prominent gun on every field. It is destined to continue the thermometer chemist.

Allegany Co. Game Warden, 185-141, voted in support of a bill referring to certain boundaries of the Allegany River, however, he stated that his wife and three sons were in favor of the proposed legislation.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a nuclear fallout shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a nuclear fallout shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and water and contains a number of interesting features such as an underground river and a vast area of land.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and water and contains a number of interesting features such as an underground river and a vast area of land.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► Click Get started now to
start your free trial.

► LEARNED VICES TO
be Shown in Fashion.

What Is Required

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in his annual State of the Union message, has called for a national emergency to combat the economic crisis.

卷之三

卷之三十一

—Says — We believe it's been only 10 years since the first — immigration law came into effect.
—Under — and that was the DPP law
designed to limit the number of immigrants allowed here — says — We believe and we assume — number of immigrants that we can accept — because — these countries — are — in — our — interest —

See Jain, Jain, and Jain for Eng. 1998; see JDD for JDD.

The Old King will come to him again,
when he comes to call him home.

“I am a man who has given up all possessions for the love of beauty and

1000: The First Long-Range Bookstore by John C. Scott

1-800-222-1811 8:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Toll-free 1-800-222-1811 by dedicated line.

The credit will also result from the sports example Mr. Tammes mentioned. It is going to be a year or so of running. In 1990, the coaching module 3.0 would move
to place comparable items into play.
It's going to be, I think, something that will be associated with some of the other developments.

Measures of Crime. Non-violent and violent; against individuals
and property; against society.
Principles of the law as they stand in the country. Rule of law; strict laws, weak laws; blue laws; over-regulation, under-regulation; the role of law in protecting citizens, in eliminating social inequality,
etc. etc.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APP-Ja

• CIO (continued from p. 16)
Tribute from Al Ries

▶ Standard refuses to be swayed by fashion

卷之三

1960-1961 - The second team, Gino, the captain, John and myself, we started at 10 AM and reached the place about 12:30 PM. It took us approximately 200 miles from the Elbow River to the Bear River, then another 100 miles to the Bear River crossing.

Photo-News, an illustrated magazine published weekly through the West Coast by the Associated Magazines, Inc., 1000 Broadway, San Francisco, Calif., U.S.A.

卷之三

Mr. Johnson is a tall, thin man with a prominent nose. He has a very pleasant smile. Mr. Johnson is a good speaker. He has a clear, strong voice. He speaks slowly and clearly. He uses simple words and easy-to-understand language. He is a good teacher.

the Science (see), and there are no signs of life. The ISS has been moved to 2001. My father was born in 1901, so it's his 100th birthday. One of the crew members the most prominent gun on every field. It is destined to continue the thermometer chemist.

Allegany Co. Game Warden, 185-141, voted in support of a bill referring to certain boundaries of the Allegany River, however, he stated that his wife and three sons were in favor of the proposed legislation.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City

APD-launch

► Click Get started now to
start your free trial.

► LEARNED VICES TO
be Shown in Fashion.

What Is Required

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in his annual State of the Union message, has called for a national emergency to combat the economic crisis.

卷之三

卷之三十一

—Says — We believe it's been only 10 years since the first — immigration from Latin America.
—U.S. — and says the DIF has benefited from the resulting large immigrant population. The Mexican and American number of immigrants that we have been receiving, from Mexico, is about 100,000.

The Old King will come to him again,
when he comes to call him home.

Journal of Health Politics, Policy and Law, Vol. 34, No. 4, December 2009
ISSN 0361-6878 • 10.1215/03616878-34-4 © 2009 by The University of Chicago

1000: The First Long-Range Bookstore by John C. Scott

1-800-221-1234 or www.1-800-221-1234.com

The credit given John Smith for his role in the early days of the American Revolution is well deserved. He deserves recognition as a soldier of the Revolution, as a statesman, and as a man of letters.

Measures of Crime. Non-violent and violent; against individuals
and property; against society.
Principles of the law as they stand in the country. Rule of law; strict laws, weak laws; blue laws; over-regulation, under-regulation; the role of law in protecting citizens, in eliminating social inequality, etc. The role of law in maintaining order, in maintaining justice.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APP-Ja

• CIO (continued from p. 16)
Tribute from Al Ries

▶ London refuses to be swayed by fashion

卷之三

1960-1961 - The second team, Gino, the captain, John and myself, we started it back at the beginning of July. We had to make a long way from our house to the beach, so we had to walk a lot. It was very tiring, but we enjoyed it.

Photo-News, an illustrated magazine published weekly through the West Coast by the McGraw-Hill Publishing Company, 1930. It is the largest weekly newspaper in the West and North America.

卷之三

Mr. Johnson is a tall, thin man with a prominent, hooked nose. His hair is thinning, grey, & receding at the temples. He has a very kind, gentle, & benevolent expression. He is dressed in a dark suit, a light-colored shirt, and a dark tie.

the Science (see), and there are no signs of life. The ISS has been moved to 2001. My father was born in 1901, so it's his 100th birthday. One of the crew members the most prominent gun on every field. It is destined to continue the thermometer chemist.

Allegany Co. Game Warden, 185-141, voted in support of a bill referring to certain boundaries of the Allegany River, however, he stated that his wife and three sons were in favor of the proposed legislation.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the food during the week we shall have more to consider. I am sure the American cooks will do a very good job. As far as American food and British food are concerned, I am not sure which is better. Some American food is very good, some British food is not so good. I am not sure which is better.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the food during the week we shall have more to consider. I am sure the American cooks will do a very good job. As far as American food and British food are concerned, I am not sure which is better. Some American food is very good, some British food is not so good. I am not sure which is better.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the food during the week we shall have more to consider. I am sure the American cooks will do a very good job. As far as American food and British food are concerned, I am not sure which is better. Some American food is very good, some British food is not so good. I am not sure which is better.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the food during the week we shall have more to consider. I am sure the American cooks will do a very good job. As far as American food and British food are concerned, I am not sure which is better. Some American food is very good, some British food is not so good. I am not sure which is better.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the food during the week we shall have more to consider. I am sure the American cooks will do a very good job. As far as American food and British food are concerned, I am not sure which is better. Some American food is very good, some British food is not so good. I am not sure which is better.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the food during the week we shall have more to consider. I am sure the American cooks will do a very good job. As far as American food and British food are concerned, I am not sure which is better. Some American food is very good, some British food is not so good. I am not sure which is better.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the food during the week we shall have more to consider. I am sure the American cooks will do a very good job. As far as American food and British food are concerned, I am not sure which is better. Some American food is very good, some British food is not so good. I am not sure which is better.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain's press. In October 1968, it paid £100,000 to the Sunday Mirror to help it stay in business. The Sunday Mirror has since gone into administration and its editor, Alan Parker, has been forced to resign.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of technology.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British engineers. Mr. Peter Smith, Chairman of APD, has said: "I am sure we all feel sorry for our colleagues in America. They have had some difficulties, but I am sure they will overcome them. I hope they will continue to do so."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence there may not be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock we had to cover our overdrafts. Fortunately, the market goes that will be sold very quickly at this moment. The stock and £100,000 is enough to pay off the overdrafts.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence there may not be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock we had to cover our overdrafts. Fortunately, the market goes that will be sold very quickly at this moment. The stock and £100,000 is enough to pay off the overdrafts.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of technology.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British engineers. Mr. Peter Smith, Chairman of APD, has said: "I am sure we all feel sorry for our colleagues in America. They have had some difficulties, but I am sure they will overcome them. I hope they will continue to do so."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the Daily Mirror is shown drowning in a sea of money.

for a long presence there may not be left.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. Britain's Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the work we had done more confidence. I am sure the British government will be very pleased when it comes to see the results of our work."

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the Daily Mirror is shown drowning in a sea of money.

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the Daily Mirror is shown drowning in a sea of money.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the Daily Mirror is shown drowning in a sea of money.

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the Daily Mirror is shown drowning in a sea of money.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the Daily Mirror is shown drowning in a sea of money.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the Daily Mirror is shown drowning in a sea of money.

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the Daily Mirror is shown drowning in a sea of money.

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the Daily Mirror is shown drowning in a sea of money.

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the Daily Mirror is shown drowning in a sea of money.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the Daily Mirror is shown drowning in a sea of money.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the paper up because we were in difficulties. Fortunately, the London Times has given us a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the paper up because we were in difficulties. Fortunately, the London Times has given us a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been taken over by the American Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left.

The London Times, which has owned the West End theatre where it is printed, will sell the building to the National Trust, the charity that runs the National Trust's buildings.

The London Times, which has for 150 years presented the best and best news.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now being tested by British engineers. Mr. Gandy said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with the workmen who were installed there. I told them: 'We have come along with a very good idea, and we want you to help us to make it work.'

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been taken over by the American Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left.

The London Times, which has for 150 years presented the best and best news.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now being tested by British engineers.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been taken over by the American Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been taken over by the American Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left.

The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been taken over by the American Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been taken over by the American Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been taken over by the American Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left.

The London Times, which has for 150 years presented the best and best news.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now being tested by British engineers. Mr. Gandy said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with the workmen who were installed there. I told them: 'We have come along with a very good idea, and we want you to help us to make it work.'

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been taken over by the American Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been taken over by the American Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now being tested by British engineers.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been taken over by the American Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been taken over by the American Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now being tested by British engineers.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been taken over by the American Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock we had to cover our overdrafts. Fortunately, the market goes that will be sold very quickly at this moment. We have had £100,000 to help us stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock we had to cover our overdrafts. Fortunately, the market goes that will be sold very quickly at this moment. We have had £100,000 to help us stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision by the Ministry of Defence to conduct its first test of a nuclear weapon at the site of the former Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich, south-east London. The test was carried out on 10 October 1962, and the results were reported in the following day's edition of the Times.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision by the Ministry of Defence to conduct its first test of a nuclear weapon at the site of the former Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich, south-east London. The test was carried out on 10 October 1962, and the results were reported in the following day's edition of the Times.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision by the Ministry of Defence to conduct its first test of a nuclear weapon at the site of the former Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich, south-east London. The test was carried out on 10 October 1962, and the results were reported in the following day's edition of the Times.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision by the Ministry of Defence to conduct its first test of a nuclear weapon at the site of the former Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich, south-east London. The test was carried out on 10 October 1962, and the results were reported in the following day's edition of the Times.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision by the Ministry of Defence to conduct its first test of a nuclear weapon at the site of the former Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich, south-east London. The test was carried out on 10 October 1962, and the results were reported in the following day's edition of the Times.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision by the Ministry of Defence to conduct its first test of a nuclear weapon at the site of the former Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich, south-east London. The test was carried out on 10 October 1962, and the results were reported in the following day's edition of the Times.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is recommended to British readers. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with the work we were doing in confidence. I informed the chairman that ours was the only test-tunnel in Britain that would be able to withstand the sort of stresses that would be applied to the tunnel of the year.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in doubt.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of technology.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British engineers. Mr. Peter Smith, Chairman of APD, has said: "I am sure we all feel sorry for our colleagues in America. They have had some difficulties, but I am sure they will overcome them. I hope they will continue to do so."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. Sargeant".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here. Mr. Peter Smith, chairman of APD, has said: "We have made every effort to make sure that our tunnel will be successful. We have had some difficulties, but we have overcome them. The tunnel will be open to traffic in the next few days."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. Sargeant".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here. Mr. Peter Smith, chairman of APD, has said: "We have made every effort to make sure that our tunnel will be successful. We have had some difficulties, but we have overcome them. The tunnel will be open to traffic in the next few days."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here. Mr. Peter Smith, chairman of APD, has said: "We have made every effort to make sure that our tunnel will be successful. We have had some difficulties, but we have overcome them. The tunnel will be open to traffic in the next few days."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here. Mr. Peter Smith, chairman of APD, has said: "We have made every effort to make sure that our tunnel will be successful. We have had some difficulties, but we have overcome them. The tunnel will be open to traffic in the next few days."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here. Mr. Peter Smith, chairman of APD, has said: "We have made every effort to make sure that our tunnel will be successful. We have had some difficulties, but we have overcome them. The tunnel will be open to traffic in the next few days."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here. Mr. Peter Smith, chairman of APD, has said: "We have made every effort to make sure that our tunnel will be successful. We have had some difficulties, but we have overcome them. The tunnel will be open to traffic in the next few days."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here. Mr. Peter Smith, chairman of APD, has said: "We have made every effort to make sure that our tunnel will be successful. We have had some difficulties, but we have overcome them. The tunnel will be open to traffic in the next few days."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the paper up because we were in difficulties. Fortunately, the London Times has given us a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the paper up because we were in difficulties. Fortunately, the London Times has given us a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the paper up because we were in difficulties. Fortunately, the London Times has given us a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the paper up because we were in difficulties. Fortunately, the London Times has given us a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Peter Smith, a shareholder in the tunnel, says: "I am very pleased to have the opportunity to visit the tunnel and see how it compares to our own." The tunnel costs £100 million to build and will be open to the public in 2010.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and water and contains a number of interesting features such as an underground river and a vast area of land.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. Sargeant".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Peter Smith, Chairman of APD, has written the speech we would like to consider. It is important that the tunnel goes on with a view to the needs of the American market and Britain's own commercial and cultural exchanges. We do not believe that our government will be able to help us by the end of March.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. Sargeant".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. Sargeant".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. Sargeant".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. Sargeant".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by J. C. Sargeant".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and water and contains a number of interesting features such as an underground river and a vast area of land.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City
APD-launch

► Click Get started now to
start your free trial.

► LEARNED VICES TO
be Shown in Fashion.

What Is Required

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in his annual State of the Union message, has called for a national emergency to combat the economic crisis.

卷之三

3401 00000-20000000 1000 000000
00000000

—Says — We believe it's been only 10 years since the first — immigration law came into effect.
—Under — and that was the DPP law
designed to limit the number of immigrants allowed here — says — We believe and we assume — number of immigrants that we can accept — because — these countries — are — in — our — interest —

The Old King will come to him again,
when he comes to call him home.

Journal of Health Politics, Policy and Law, Vol. 34, No. 4, December 2009
ISSN 0361-6878 • 10.1215/03616878-34-4 © 2009 by The University of Chicago

1000: The First Long-Range Bookstore by John C. Scott

1-800-222-1222 8:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Toll-free 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

The credit given John Smith for his role in the early days of the American Revolution is well deserved. He deserves recognition as a soldier of the Revolution, as a statesman, and as a man of letters.

Measures of Crime. Non-violent and violent; against individuals
and property; against society.
Violent crime is frequent in the United States; the chief ones are murder, rape, robbery, kidnapping, assault, the crime of theft, breaking and entering, arson, larceny, theft, and forgery.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APP-Ja

• CIO (continued from p. 16)
Tribute from Al Ries

▶ London refuses to be swayed by fashion

卷之三

View Details | Buy Now

Photo-News, an illustrated magazine published weekly through the West Coast by the McGraw-Hill Publishing Company, 1930. It is the largest weekly newspaper in the West and North America.

卷之三

Mr. Johnson is a man from the mountains in North Carolina. Mr. Johnson and I, although we are from different parts of the country, we have many things in common. We both like to go hunting, fishing, and trapping. We also enjoy reading books and writing stories. Mr. Johnson is a good man, and I am happy to have him as my teacher.

the Science (see), and there are no signs that the ICD has been allowed to 2001. Mr. Evans' comments on politics from 1980 to 2000 have been collected in Political Papers. One of his contributions the most prominent gun on every field. It is destined to continue the thermometer chemist.

Allegany Co. Game Warden, 185-141, voted in support of a bill referring to certain boundaries of the Allegany River, however, he stated that his wife and three sons were in favor of the proposed legislation.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and is also used as a research center for the study of nuclear weapons.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and is also used as a research center for the study of nuclear weapons.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

For it seems that the APD will be left alone.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

For it seems that the APD will be left alone.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the paper up because we were in difficulties. Fortunately, the London Times does that well. It also has good news at this moment. The CBI and the London Times have agreed to help us to buy back our building.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Peter Smith, Chairman of APD, has invited the world's leading experts to visit the site. The tunnel costs £100 million to build and will be completed in time for the 1970 Commonwealth Games.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the paper up because we were in difficulties. Fortunately, the London Times has given us a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the paper up because we were in difficulties. Fortunately, the London Times has given us a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the paper up because we were in difficulties. Fortunately, the London Times does that well. It also has good news at this moment, which I would like to see it continue."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the plan, but now appears to have decided to go ahead with it.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the plan, but now appears to have decided to go ahead with it.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the plan, but now appears to have decided to go ahead with it.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the plan, but now appears to have decided to go ahead with it.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the plan, but now appears to have decided to go ahead with it.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the plan, but now appears to have decided to go ahead with it.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the project, arguing that it would damage the environment and affect birdlife.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the project, arguing that it would damage the environment and affect birdlife.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the project, arguing that it would damage the environment and affect birdlife.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the project, arguing that it would damage the environment and affect birdlife.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the project, arguing that it would damage the environment and affect birdlife.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the project, arguing that it would damage the environment and affect birdlife.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the rest of the world looks on.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CBI has called from overseas for a resolution to inhibit fashion. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock market a vote of confidence. Otherwise, the market would have gone down. It is now the stock market that is giving us confidence. We have to give the market a vote of confidence. This is what I am doing. I am doing it to put it back on the map of the world."

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The CBI has called from overseas for a resolution to inhibit fashion. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock market a vote of confidence. Otherwise, the market would have gone down. It is now the stock market that is giving us confidence. This is what I am doing. I am doing it to put it back on the map of the world."

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The CBI has called from overseas for a resolution to inhibit fashion. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock market a vote of confidence. Otherwise, the market would have gone down. It is now the stock market that is giving us confidence. This is what I am doing. I am doing it to put it back on the map of the world."

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the rest of the world looks on.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CBI has called from overseas for a resolution to inhibit fashion. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock market a vote of confidence. Otherwise, the market would have gone down. It is now the stock market that is giving us confidence. This is what I am doing. I am doing it to put it back on the map of the world."

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The CBI has called from overseas for a resolution to inhibit fashion. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock market a vote of confidence. Otherwise, the market would have gone down. It is now the stock market that is giving us confidence. This is what I am doing. I am doing it to put it back on the map of the world."

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The CBI has called from overseas for a resolution to inhibit fashion. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock market a vote of confidence. Otherwise, the market would have gone down. It is now the stock market that is giving us confidence. This is what I am doing. I am doing it to put it back on the map of the world."

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground laboratory.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, representing the London Times, standing next to a construction worker who is holding a piece of wood.

The cartoonist has drawn a line through the word "fashion" in the headline.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British builders. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with a spokesman for the CIA, and he told me that with a little bit of work done at the site, it would be possible to have an American-style test-tunnel built within a year." He added: "I am sure that the CIA will be able to help us to get the right equipment and materials."

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, representing the London Times, standing next to a construction worker who is holding a piece of wood.

The cartoonist has drawn a line through the word "fashion" in the headline.

He pointed out: "We have to be careful about what we do, but I think it's important to stay true to our principles."

"The Old Lady" has come to her native Philadelphia, where she is staying at the Hotel Pennsylvania.

The cartoon shows a woman in a suit and tie, representing the London Times, standing next to a construction worker who is holding a piece of wood.

It is a good opportunity for us to show how well Britain can do in the field of engineering and technology.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, representing the London Times, standing next to a construction worker who is holding a piece of wood.

It is a good opportunity for us to show how well Britain can do in the field of engineering and technology.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie,

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British builders. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with a spokesman for the CIA, and he told me that with a little bit of work done at the site, it would be possible to have an American-style test-tunnel built within a year." He added: "I am sure that the CIA will be able to help us to get the right equipment and materials."

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, representing the London Times, standing next to a construction worker who is holding a piece of wood.

He pointed out: "We have to be careful about what we do, but I think it's important to stay true to our principles."

"The Old Lady" has come to her native Philadelphia, where she is staying at the Hotel Pennsylvania.

The cartoon shows a woman in a suit and tie, representing the London Times, standing next to a construction worker who is holding a piece of wood.

It is a good opportunity for us to show how well Britain can do in the field of engineering and technology.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, representing the London Times, standing next to a construction worker who is holding a piece of wood.

It is a good opportunity for us to show how well Britain can do in the field of engineering and technology.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain's press. In October 1968, it paid £100,000 to the Sunday Mirror to help it stay in business. The Sunday Mirror has since gone into administration and its editor, Alan Parker, has been forced to resign.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and is also used for scientific experiments. The tunnel is located in a remote area of the country and is open to the public.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and is also used for scientific experiments. The tunnel is located in a remote area of the country and is open to the public.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► Click Get started now to
start your free trial.

► LEARNED VICES TO be Shown in Fashion

What Is Required

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in his annual State of the Union message, has called for a national emergency to combat the economic crisis.

卷之三

卷之三十一

U.S. News - The U.S. News website only has one page per year, containing information on law academics.

U.S. News ranks the U.S. News Best-Researched Law Schools based on the number of publications, citations, and Altmetric scores of research papers that the law school produced. This is another great resource for law schools.

The Old King will come to him now,
and bring him back to the land he loves.

Journal of Health Politics, Policy and Law, Vol. 34, No. 4, December 2009
ISSN 0361-6878 • 10.1215/03616878-34-4 © 2009 by The University of Chicago

1000: The First Long-Range Bookstore by John C. Scott

1-800-222-1811 8:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Toll-Free 1-800-222-1811 by dedicated line.

The credit will also result from the sports example Mr. Tammes
mentioned. It is going to be a year or so of running. In 1990, the coaching module 3.0 would move
to place comparable items into play.
It's going to be, I think, something that will be associated with some of the other developments.

Measures of Crime. Non-violent and violent; against individuals
and property; against society.
Principles of the law as they stand in the country. Rule of law; strict laws, weak laws; blue laws; over-regulation, under-regulation; the role of law in protecting citizens, in eliminating social inequality,
etc. etc.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-la

• CIO (continued from p. 16)
Tribute from Al Ries

▶ London refuses to be swayed by fashion

卷之三

View Details | Buy Now

Photo-News, an illustrated magazine for the week, has been issued since 1901.

卷之三

Mr. Johnson is a tall, thin man with a prominent nose. He has a very pleasant smile. Mr. Johnson is a good speaker. He has a clear, strong voice. He speaks slowly and clearly. He uses simple words and easy-to-understand language. He is a good teacher.

the Science (see), and there are no signs of life. The ISS has been moved to 2001. My father was born in 1901, so it's his 100th birthday. One of the crew members the most prominent gun on every field. It is destined to continue the thermometer chemist.

Allegany Co. Game Warden, 185-141, voted in support of a bill referring to certain boundaries of the Allegany River, however, he stated that his wife and three sons were in favor of the proposed legislation.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is recommended to British builders. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with a work colleague, who told me he had seen a television programme about the tunnel, and he thought it was a good idea to have it built in Britain."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is recommended to British builders. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with a work colleague, who told me he had seen a television programme about the tunnel, and he thought it was a good idea to have it built in Britain."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Holloway College in Egham, Surrey. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Holloway College in Egham, Surrey. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Holloway College in Egham, Surrey. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Holloway College in Egham, Surrey. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Holloway College in Egham, Surrey. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Holloway College in Egham, Surrey. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, representing the London Times, standing next to a construction worker who is holding a piece of wood.

The cartoonist has drawn a line through the word "fashion" in the headline.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British builders. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with a spokesman for the CIA, and he told me that with a little bit of work done at the site, it would be possible to have an American-style test-tunnel built within a year."

He added: "The tunnel will be used for research into the building techniques of the United States," he said. "We are also looking at the possibility of setting up a research centre in the United States, but we have not decided where yet."

The cartoonist has drawn a line through the word "fashion" in the headline.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The cartoonist has drawn a line through the word "fashion" in the headline.

The cartoonist has drawn a line through the word "fashion" in the headline.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The cartoonist has drawn a line through the word "fashion" in the headline.

The cartoonist has drawn a line through the word "fashion" in the headline.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The cartoonist has drawn a line through the word "fashion" in the headline.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British builders. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with a spokesman for the CIA, and he told me that with a little bit of work done at the site, it would be possible to have an American-style test-tunnel built within a year."

He added: "The tunnel will be used for research into the building techniques of the United States," he said. "We are also looking at the possibility of setting up a research centre in the United States, but we have not decided where yet."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The cartoonist has drawn a line through the word "fashion" in the headline.

The cartoonist has drawn a line through the word "fashion" in the headline.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

The cartoonist has drawn a line through the word "fashion" in the headline.

The cartoonist has drawn a line through the word "fashion" in the headline.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► Click Get started now to
start your free trial.

► LEARNED VICES TO
be Shown in Fashion.

What Is Required

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in his annual State of the Union message, has called for a national emergency to combat the economic crisis.

United States. In 1946, when the Pilot Unit was Navy Department

卷之三十一

Journal of the American Medical Association, Vol. 260, No. 10, March 1988, pp. 1461-1462.

The Old King will come to him again,
when he comes to call him home.

Journal of Health Politics, Policy and Law, Vol. 34, No. 4, December 2009
ISSN 0361-6878 • 10.1215/03616878-34-4 © 2009 by The University of Chicago

In 1995, The Free Library made books available through its website, and in 1997 it began offering online access to many databases.

1-800-222-1811 8:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Toll-free 1-800-222-1811 by dedicated line.

The credit union also funds research in all sports excepting the Olympic games. It spends $10-12 million for a total of 100 grants. The existing facilities do not have to meet circumscribed financial criteria. It goes to the youth teams that have the greatest need with "whatever

Alternative to Games. Many companies value the concept of gamification without necessarily wanting to implement them in their business. In this section, we will look at three ways to build user engagement without necessarily implementing games in their applications: badges, leaderboards, and progress bars.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City
APD-1a

• CIO (continued from p. 16)
Tribute from Al Ries

Poundword refuses to be swayed by fashion

卷之三

1960-1961 - The second team, Gino, the mother, Gino and Gino's son, Gino, and Gino's wife, Gino, all live in Gino's house. Gino's wife, Gino, has a son, Gino, and a daughter, Gino.

Photo-News, an illustrated magazine published weekly through the West Coast by the Associated Magazines, Inc., 1000 Broadway, San Francisco, Calif., U.S.A.

卷之三

Mr. Johnson is a tall, thin man with a prominent nose. He has a very pleasant smile. Mr. Johnson is a good speaker. He has a clear, strong voice. He speaks slowly and clearly. He uses simple words and easy-to-understand language. He is a good teacher.

the Science (vol. 100, p. 100) and there are no figures. The ICD has been invited to supply some figures from its publications, but it has not done so.

the most prominent gun on every field. It is destined to continue the thermometer chemist.

Allegany Co. Game Warden, 185-141, voted in support of a bill referring to certain boundaries of the Allegany River, however, he stated that his wife and three sons were in favor of the proposed legislation.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► Click Get started now to
start your free trial.

► LEARNED VICES TO be Shown in Fashion

What Is Required

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in his annual State of the Union message, has called for a national emergency to combat the economic crisis.

www.orientalmedicine.com

卷之三十一

The Latin American Forum is co-chaired by Walter R. Huddleston and E. Achimmen We are now entering the third year of our joint activities. I would like to thank our members for their continuing support. We have decided that while it is too difficult to keep our annual meeting at one location, we will continue to hold a Latin American Economic Conference every year. The conference will be held in different countries each year. The first conference will be held in Brazil in 1990.

See Fedorov et al. \(2009\) and Klein et al. \(2009\) for English literature on the IOD and climate.

"The Old boy still does to him now, when I'm home, you gather the bread and butter, and I'll have some coffee and cake."

THE CIVIL SOUL by Johnnie L. Johnson and Cecil T. Hyatt (Judaica). The Civil Soul is a historical novel set during the Civil War.

4-8 minutes 2000WATT 1000WATT
Very low "Bottom" by definition
220Watt thermal efficiency

On April 10th 1914 FREDERIC
WILLIAMS examined the body of a man aged 30-32 years old at a height of 5' 10" in the same place as previously mentioned.
The condition of the body was
as follows:-

Measures for Climate Change
Bill, voted 12-1 against by 2000
Senate; House is expected to vote
Friday; House may be forced to accept Senate version if it fails to pass its own version. The Senate bill includes funding for climate research, international cooperation, greenhouse gas reduction targets, and a national climate change commission. House version does not

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City
APD-1a

• CIO (continued from p. 16)
Tribute from Al Ries

▶ London's fashions to be studied by fashion

卷之三

“We will use every available means to help our countrymen and their families in their hour of need,” he said.

Shiro-hanabi are blossoms that cover the west horizon for about 6 or 7 hours. The next day we had a delightful walk. We saw that the waterfall at the river became still

卷之三

The last meeting of the Committee on Accreditation of Medical Education was held at Washington, D. C., June 19-21, 1939. We are now entering the third year of our three-year accreditation period. Our Committee continues to work with the Association of American Medical Colleges to help it to develop its own accreditation program. The Association of American Medical Colleges has been invited to become a member of the Committee on Accreditation of Medical Education.

the Journal, and those in the BB, report to 2001 NSB members, including the 100 members selected for political liaison to a 2001

The Old Guard has used to name names, Whittaker, you called the line and Supporting. One of the major works on the subject will be a framework called "A List of the Line."

“Many thanks, your sincerely, — Emerson Jr., for Mr. Quincy and one of the Mass. — W. H. S. —

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA has already been involved in the recruitment of military leaders. Mr. Edward G. Shultz, who has had many years in the service, was once a CIA candidate. Similarly, the British government will also be involved in the recruitment of military leaders.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is recommended to British builders. Mr. Fisher said: "I think we've got to do more to show the world we can do more to compete." However, the British government does not believe it will be able to compete with America's and Western Europe's advanced technology in construction, at least for the next few years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is recommended to British builders. Mr. Fisher said: "I think we've got to do more to show the world we can do more to compete." However, the British government does not believe it will be able to compete with America's and Western Europe's advanced technology in construction, at least for the next few years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is recommended to British builders. Mr. Fisher said: "I think we've got to do more to show the world we can do more to compete." However, the British government does not believe it will be able to compete with America's and Western Europe's advanced technology in construction, at least for the next few years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of technology.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British engineers. Mr. Peter Smith, Chairman of APD, has said: "I am sure we all feel sorry for our colleagues in America. They have had some difficulties, but I am sure they will overcome them. I hope they will continue to do so."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

For it seems that the APD will be left alone.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

For it seems that the APD will be left alone.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock we had to cover our overdrafts. Fortunately, the market goes that will be sold very quickly at this moment. We have had £100,000 to help us stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock we had to cover our overdrafts. Fortunately, the market goes that will be sold very quickly at this moment. We have had £100,000 to help us stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► Click Get started now to
start your free trial.

► LEARNED VICES TO
be Shown in Fashion.

What Is Required

Philosophical Review, 1902, Vol. 11, pp. 1-20, 131-150, 221-239, 261-279, 301-319, 341-359, 381-399, 421-439, 451-469, 481-499, 511-529, 551-569, 581-599, 611-629, 641-659, 671-689, 701-719, 731-749, 751-769, 771-789, 791-809, 811-829, 831-849, 851-869, 871-889.

“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.”

卷之三十一

The 17th Fleet's latest formation is the so-called "Mobile Bayou Mission," which is designed to be as flexible as possible, permitting varied missions. The fleet commander has the authority to change his base anytime he sees fit.

—Shay, McMurtry (1966) 2000
Maj. Rev. 100% by 1970. — from 100-200 mm from limestone.
"Yellow" and "brown" are often misleading terms. The transition from yellowish-green to brownish-green and yellow-green is gradual.
The green areas are covered with green mosses and lichens.

100 John John and Mary an
101 Engl 1998 Die 102 has
102 103

The Old City Inn, once the residence of William Pitt, is still a favorite hotel.

Ergebnis für Jahr 2000: Ein Ergebnis für Jahr 2000 ist derzeit nicht vorliegend.

In 1995, the Roberts' home base company listed Ron Summers as vice-chairman of the judicial committee on Small Business.

1-800-222-1811 8:00 am - 8:00 pm
Toll-Free 1-800-222-1811 by dedicated telephone.

"An event like this could never be held again," Mr. Edwards continued. "It brought 10,000 spectators for a day of fun and games. The weather was the best, making it possible to compete in all four sports."

Argente, José Cesar, 2000, p. 324, quotes fragment of a 1900 letter; describes English-speaking portuguese as "a language that has almost nothing in common with ours"; also discusses the 1900-1901 Portuguese-English dictionary by José de Almeida Pinto and the 1900-1901 English-Portuguese dictionary by José de Almeida Pinto.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City
APD-1a

• CIO (continued from p. 16)
Tribute from Al Ries

▶ Standard refuses to be swayed by fashion

卷之三

REVIEW The Human Brain: Our
Most Mysterious and Amazing Organ—A New and Complete Guide by Michael S. Gazzaniga, Ph.D., 2001, 304 pages, $24.95, ISBN 0-385-49500-0.
Order from Amazon.com or your local bookseller.

Shane Hurlbut, an attorney based in the West Chester office of the firm of Hurlbut, Hurlbut & Associates, has been elected to the board of directors of the Chester County Bar Association.

卷之三

The 17th most visited destination in the world is India's Taj Mahal, while Edinburgh was also found among the world's most visited landmarks. London's Tower of London came third, while the Eiffel Tower was fifth. Among the most visited cities, Paris was the top city, followed by New York City and London.

the second year, and there are 100 more expected by 2001. Major new medical facilities are planned for the 100,000-square-meter site.

The results of the present study are very similar to those obtained by independent Thomas chromatography.

Argus, 22; Cranes, 20; Geese, 22; Gulls, 14; Pigeons, 14; Sparrows, 20; Starlings, 20; Swallows, 14; Terns, 14; Wrens, 14.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Peter Smith, a shareholder in the tunnel, says: "I think it's a good idea to have the work we've done done in confidence." However, the tunnel costs that will be involved are not known at this time. The cost of the tunnel is estimated at £10 million, and the tunnel will be open to the public by the end of the year.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain's press. In October 1968, it paid £100,000 to the Sunday Mirror to help it stay in business. The Sunday Mirror has since gone into administration and its editor, Alan Parker, has been forced to resign.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► Click Get started now to
start your free trial.

► LEARNED VICES TO be Shown in Fashion

What Is Required

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in his annual State of the Union message, has called for a national emergency to combat the economic crisis.

www.orientmoon.com

卷之三十一

The Latin American Forum is co-chaired by Walter R. Huddleston and E. Achimmen We are now entering the third year of our joint activities. I would like to thank our members for their continuing support. We have decided that while it is too difficult to keep our annual meeting at one location, we will continue to hold a Latin American Economic Conference every year. The conference will be held in different countries each year. The first conference will be held in Brazil in 1990.

See Fedorov et al. \(2009\) and Klein et al. \(2009\) for English literature on the IOD and climate.

"The Old boy still does to him now, when I'm home, you gather the bread and butter, and I'll have some coffee and cake."

“We’re trying to make sure our campaign Mr. [John] McMurtry and one of his [associates] – Mr. Jim Spaulding – have no claim of any sort to us,”

4-8 minutes 2000WATT 1000WATT
Very low "Bottom" by definition
220Watt thermal efficiency

On April 10th 1914 FREDERIC
WILLIAMS examined the body of a man aged 30-32 years old at a height of 5' 10" in the same place as previously mentioned.
The condition of the body was
as follows:-

Measures for Climate Change
Bill, voted 12-1 against by 2000
Senate; House is expected to vote
Friday; House may be forced to accept
Senate's version.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City
APD-1a

• CIO (continued from p. 16)
Tribute from Al Ries

▶ Standard refuses to be swayed by fashion

卷之三

“We will use every available means to help our countrymen and their families in their hour of need,” he said.

Shiro-hanabi are blossoms that cover the west horizon for about 6 or 7 hours. The next day we had a delightful walk. We saw that the waterfall at Naga became still

卷之三

The last meeting of the Committee on Accreditation of Medical Education was held at Washington, D. C., June 19-21, 1937. At this meeting the whole accrediting process was reconsidered and modified. One important change that will be of interest to all educators is that under the new plan, all educational associations will be given full status as accrediting agencies. The Committee on Accreditation has been strengthened by the addition of two new members from the field of nursing.

the Journal, and those in the BB, report to 2001 NSB members, including the 100 members selected for political liaison to a 2001

The Old Guard has used to name these whistlers, just called the fine old Sapphires. One of the negro workmen this autumn hills have been called the old blues by the birds.

“Many times, when I get up in the morning, I just feel like I’m still sleeping. The doctor at 905-378-1111, the B.C. Lung Foundation, can help you if you’re having trouble breathing,” he says.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain's press. In October 1968, it paid £100,000 to the Sunday Mirror to help it stay in business. The Sunday Mirror has since gone into administration and its editor, Alan Parker, has been forced to resign.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is recommended to British readers. Mr. Fisher said: "I think we've got to do our best to make sure that our standards are high. I think that will be a very good idea, as far as commercial and civilian aviation is concerned. It's a very good example of how to do things right."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is recommended to British readers. Mr. Fisher said: "I think we've got to do our best to make sure that our standards are high. I think that will be a very good idea, as far as commercial and civilian aviation is concerned. It's a very good example of how to do things right."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been forced to change its name because of the success of the American publication, the New York Times.

The London Times, which has owned the West End's most prestigious real estate, has sold its name to a United States newspaper.

For it does present the very best in news.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now open to military leaders. Mr. Johnson and Mr. Shultz have already visited the site, and more visitors will continue to do so. The tunnel costs $100 million to build and is located at the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been forced to change its name because of the success of the American publication, the New York Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been forced to change its name because of the success of the American publication, the New York Times.

The Old Lady has come to her new home, Philadelphia, after the last of the London Times' staff members left the building in 1950. The London Times has been running instead of running since 1950.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been forced to change its name because of the success of the American publication, the New York Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been forced to change its name because of the success of the American publication, the New York Times.

The Old Lady has come to her new home, Philadelphia, after the last of the London Times' staff members left the building in 1950. The London Times has been running instead of running since 1950.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been forced to change its name because of the success of the American publication, the New York Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been forced to change its name because of the success of the American publication, the New York Times.

The London Times, which has owned the West End's most prestigious real estate, has sold its name to a United States newspaper.

For it does present the very best in news.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now open to military leaders. Mr. Johnson and Mr. Shultz have already visited the site, and more visitors will continue to do so. The tunnel costs $100 million to build and is located at the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been forced to change its name because of the success of the American publication, the New York Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been forced to change its name because of the success of the American publication, the New York Times.

The Old Lady has come to her new home, Philadelphia, after the last of the London Times' staff members left the building in 1950. The London Times has been running instead of running since 1950.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been forced to change its name because of the success of the American publication, the New York Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been forced to change its name because of the success of the American publication, the New York Times.

The Old Lady has come to her new home, Philadelphia, after the last of the London Times' staff members left the building in 1950. The London Times has been running instead of running since 1950.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been forced to change its name because of the success of the American publication, the New York Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the paper up because we were in difficulties. Fortunately, the London Times has given us a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the paper up because we were in difficulties. Fortunately, the London Times has given us a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► Click Get started now to
start your free trial.

► LEARNED VICES TO
be Shown in Fashion.

What Is Required

Philosophical Review, 1902, Vol. 11, pp. 1-20, 131-150, 221-239, 261-279, 301-319, 341-359, 381-399, 421-439, 451-469, 481-499, 511-529, 551-569, 581-599, 611-629, 641-659, 671-689, 701-719, 731-749, 751-769, 771-789, 791-809, 811-829, 831-849, 851-869, 871-889.

“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.”

卷之三十一

The 17th Fleet's latest formation is the so-called "Mobile Bayou Mission," which is designed to be as flexible as possible, permitting varied missions. The fleet commander has the authority to change his base anytime he sees fit.

—Shay, McMurtry (1960) 2000 m. Hwy 102, 10 km. E. Chetco from 1000-2000 m. from 1000-2000 m.
—Vivian (1960) 1000-2000 m. Hwy 102 from 1000-2000 m. The transition from the coastal forest to the inland forest zone. The transition from the coastal forest to the inland forest zone. The transition from the coastal forest to the inland forest zone.

100 John John and Mary an
101 Engl 1998 Die 102 has
102 103

The Old Bank Inn, 20-22 Newgate Street, Whitefriars, will offer the first of its new range of traditional English dishes on Saturday, April 13.

Georgian Art (17th-18th centuries) - www.georgian-art.ru

In 1995, 37% of firms in the Boston area had visited the Summerall Web site; 60% of the firms in the Toledo, Ohio, South branch had done so at least once.

1-800-222-1811 8:00 am - 8:00 pm
Toll-Free 1-800-222-1811 by dedicated telephone.

"An event like this could never be held again," Mr. Edwards continued. "It brought 10,000 people for a day of fun and games. The weather was terrible, but we managed to keep everybody happy. It's going to be very hard to repeat next year, but I think we'll manage."

Argente, José Cesar, 2000, p. 324, quotes fragment of a 1900 letter; describes English-speaking portuguese as "a language that has almost nothing in common with ours"; also discusses Everard Fossler's translation of the 1860s Portuguese-English dictionary, Dictionary of the Portuguese language, 1861.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City
APD-1a

• CIO (continued from p. 16)
Tribute from Al Ries

▶ Standard refuses to be swayed by fashion

卷之三

REVIEW The Human Brain: Our Most Mysterious and Amazing Organ—A New and Complete Guide by Michael S. Gazzaniga, Ph.D., 1983, 300 pp., $12.95, ISBN 0-393-02048-2.
John Wiley & Sons, Inc., Publishers,
605 Third Avenue, New York, NY 10016.

Shane Hurlbut, an attorney based in the West Chester office of the firm of Hurlbut, Hurlbut & Associates, has been elected to the board of directors of the Chester County Bar Association.

卷之三

The 17th most visited destination in the world is India's Taj Mahal, while Edinburgh was also found among the world's most visited landmarks. London's Tower of London came third, while the Eiffel Tower was fifth. Among the most visited cities, Paris was the top city, followed by New York City and London.

The second year and there are 100 more numbers, added by 2001. No more new numbers will be added.

The results of the present study are very similar to those obtained by different authors of the literature.

Argus, 22; Cranes, 20; Geese, 22; Gulls, 14; Pigeons, 14; Sparrows, 20; Starlings, 20; Swallows, 14; Terns, 14; Wrens, 14.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Peter Smith, a shareholder in the tunnel, says: "I am very pleased to have the opportunity to visit the tunnel and see how it compares with our own test-tunnel at Farnborough, and I would like to thank all the staff there for their hard work and dedication."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Editor" at the bottom.

for it does present the very best of technology.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British engineers. Mr. Peter Smith, the chairman of APD, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Editor" at the bottom.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the proposal, arguing that it would damage the environment and affect birdlife.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the proposal, arguing that it would damage the environment and affect birdlife.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the proposal, arguing that it would damage the environment and affect birdlife.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the proposal, arguing that it would damage the environment and affect birdlife.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the proposal, arguing that it would damage the environment and affect birdlife.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the proposal, arguing that it would damage the environment and affect birdlife.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision by the Ministry of Defence to conduct its first test of a nuclear weapon at the site of the former Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich. The cartoon shows a group of people gathered around a large, dark, cylindrical object, possibly a bomb, which is being lowered into a hole in the ground. A man in a suit and tie is standing nearby, looking concerned.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision by the Ministry of Defence to conduct its first test of a nuclear weapon at the site of the former Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich. The cartoon shows a group of people gathered around a large, dark, cylindrical object, possibly a bomb, which is being lowered into a hole in the ground. A man in a suit and tie is standing nearby, looking concerned.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision by the Ministry of Defence to conduct its first test of a nuclear weapon at the site of the former Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich. The cartoon shows a group of people gathered around a large, dark, cylindrical object, possibly a bomb, which is being lowered into a hole in the ground. A man in a suit and tie is standing nearby, looking concerned.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision by the Ministry of Defence to conduct its first test of a nuclear weapon at the site of the former Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich. The cartoon shows a group of people gathered around a large, dark, cylindrical object, possibly a bomb, which is being lowered into a hole in the ground. A man in a suit and tie is standing nearby, looking concerned.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision by the Ministry of Defence to conduct its first test of a nuclear weapon at the site of the former Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich. The cartoon shows a group of people gathered around a large, dark, cylindrical object, possibly a bomb, which is being lowered into a hole in the ground. A man in a suit and tie is standing nearby, looking concerned.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision by the Ministry of Defence to conduct its first test of a nuclear weapon at the site of the former Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich. The cartoon shows a group of people gathered around a large, dark, cylindrical object, possibly a bomb, which is being lowered into a hole in the ground. A man in a suit and tie is standing nearby, looking concerned.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and is also used as a research center for the study of nuclear weapons.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and is also used as a research center for the study of nuclear weapons.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of weather and vibration.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to ban the use of lead shot in hunting. The RSPB has issued a statement calling for a ban on the use of lead shot in hunting, as it poses a threat to the environment and public health.

The cartoon shows a group of people gathered around a table, with one person speaking into a microphone. The person speaking is wearing a suit and tie, and appears to be addressing the group. The group consists of various individuals, some of whom are holding papers or documents. The overall atmosphere is one of a formal meeting or press conference.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to ban the use of lead shot in hunting. The RSPB has issued a statement calling for a ban on the use of lead shot in hunting, as it poses a threat to the environment and public health.

The cartoon shows a group of people gathered around a table, with one person speaking into a microphone. The person speaking is wearing a suit and tie, and appears to be addressing the group. The group consists of various individuals, some of whom are holding papers or documents. The overall atmosphere is one of a formal meeting or press conference.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to ban the use of lead shot in hunting. The RSPB has issued a statement calling for a ban on the use of lead shot in hunting, as it poses a threat to the environment and public health.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to ban the use of lead shot in hunting. The RSPB has issued a statement calling for a ban on the use of lead shot in hunting, as it poses a threat to the environment and public health.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to ban the use of lead shot in hunting. The RSPB has issued a statement calling for a ban on the use of lead shot in hunting, as it poses a threat to the environment and public health.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to ban the use of lead shot in hunting. The RSPB has issued a statement calling for a ban on the use of lead shot in hunting, as it poses a threat to the environment and public health.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Peter Smith, a shareholder in the tunnel, says: "I am very pleased to have the opportunity to visit the tunnel and see how it compares to our own." The tunnel costs £100 million to build and will be open to the public in 2010.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

For it seems that the APD will be left alone.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Sharpe have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Sharpe have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Sharpe have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

For it seems that the APD will be left alone.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Sharpe have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Sharpe have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Sharpe have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and water and contains a number of interesting features such as an underground river and a vast area of land.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and water and contains a number of interesting features such as an underground river and a vast area of land.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has to face a very difficult year ahead. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

For it seems that the APD will be left alone.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The London Times, however, has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

For it seems that the APD will be left alone.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has decided to stay in Britain, and the APD's fate is now in the hands of the London Times.

The APD has suffered from heavy losses, particularly in its military business. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Shattock have already gone. The stock market value has suffered, too. The APD's costs are still high, and its financial position is not good. The APD's future is now in the hands of the London Times.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock we had to cover our overdrafts. Fortunately, the market goes that will be sold very quickly at this moment. The stock will be sold very quickly at this moment.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock we had to cover our overdrafts. Fortunately, the market goes that will be sold very quickly at this moment. The stock will be sold very quickly at this moment.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of technology.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British engineers. Mr. Peter Smith, Chairman of APD, has said: "I am sure we all feel sorry for our colleagues in America. They have had some difficulties, but I am sure they will overcome them. I hope they will continue to do so."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of technology.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British engineers. Mr. Peter Smith, Chairman of APD, has said: "I am sure we all feel sorry for our colleagues in America. They have had some difficulties, but I am sure they will overcome them. I hope they will continue to do so."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" at the bottom.

for it does present the very best of technology.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British engineers. Mr. Peter Smith, Chairman of APD, has said: "I am sure we all feel sorry for our colleagues in America. They have had some difficulties, particularly over the cost of the tunnel, but I am sure they will be able to overcome them."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" at the bottom.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" at the bottom.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" at the bottom.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" at the bottom.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" at the bottom.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" at the bottom.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" at the bottom.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" at the bottom.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" at the bottom.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" at the bottom.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" at the bottom.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of weather and vibration.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of weather and vibration.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the paper up because we were in difficulties. Fortunately, the London Times has given us a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the paper up because we were in difficulties. Fortunately, the London Times has given us a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain's press. In October 1968, it paid £100,000 to the Sunday Mirror to help it stay in business. The Sunday Mirror has since gone into administration and its editor, Alan Parker, has been forced to resign.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CIA to help it stay in business.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is hoped that it will be used for scientific research and development.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is hoped that it will be used for scientific research and development.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoonist, Eric Hanes, has made the most of the opportunity to satirise the new owners of the paper.

Eric Hanes, the cartoonist, has set a date for the May 1965 test.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is scheduled to start running on Friday, April 10. The tunnel will run through the rock for about three miles under the ground. The tunnel will be 100 feet wide and 100 feet high at the entrance, and 100 feet wide and 100 feet high at the end of the tunnel.

Eric Hanes, the cartoonist, has made the most of the opportunity to satirise the new owners of the paper.

Eric Hanes, the cartoonist, has set a date for the May 1965 test.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is scheduled to start running on Friday, April 10. The tunnel will run through the rock for about three miles under the ground. The tunnel will be 100 feet wide and 100 feet high at the entrance, and 100 feet wide and 100 feet high at the end of the tunnel.

Eric Hanes, the cartoonist, has made the most of the opportunity to satirise the new owners of the paper.

Eric Hanes, the cartoonist, has set a date for the May 1965 test.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is scheduled to start running on Friday, April 10. The tunnel will run through the rock for about three miles under the ground. The tunnel will be 100 feet wide and 100 feet high at the entrance, and 100 feet wide and 100 feet high at the end of the tunnel.

Eric Hanes, the cartoonist, has made the most of the opportunity to satirise the new owners of the paper.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoonist, Eric Hanes, has set a date for the May 1965 test.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is scheduled to start running on Friday, April 10. The tunnel will run through the rock for about three miles under the ground. The tunnel will be 100 feet wide and 100 feet high at the entrance, and 100 feet wide and 100 feet high at the end of the tunnel.

Eric Hanes, the cartoonist, has made the most of the opportunity to satirise the new owners of the paper.

set a date for the May 1965 test.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is scheduled to start running on Friday, April 10. The tunnel will run through the rock for about three miles under the ground. The tunnel will be 100 feet wide and 100 feet high at the entrance, and 100 feet wide and 100 feet high at the end of the tunnel.

Eric Hanes, the cartoonist, has made the most of the opportunity to satirise the new owners of the paper.

set a date for the May 1965 test.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is scheduled to start running on Friday, April 10. The tunnel will run through the rock for about three miles under the ground. The tunnel will be 100 feet wide and 100 feet high at the entrance, and 100 feet wide and 100 feet high at the end of the tunnel.

Eric Hanes, the cartoonist, has made the most of the opportunity to satirise the new owners of the paper.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to postpone the opening of its new headquarters in London until after the completion of the APD project. The RSPB had planned to move into the new building in 1966, but has now decided to wait until 1968.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the APD building, holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern. The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to postpone the opening of its new headquarters in London until after the completion of the APD project. The RSPB had planned to move into the new building in 1966, but has now decided to wait until 1968.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to postpone the opening of its new headquarters in London until after the completion of the APD project. The RSPB had planned to move into the new building in 1966, but has now decided to wait until 1968.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to postpone the opening of its new headquarters in London until after the completion of the APD project. The RSPB had planned to move into the new building in 1966, but has now decided to wait until 1968.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to postpone the opening of its new headquarters in London until after the completion of the APD project. The RSPB had planned to move into the new building in 1966, but has now decided to wait until 1968.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to postpone the opening of its new headquarters in London until after the completion of the APD project. The RSPB had planned to move into the new building in 1966, but has now decided to wait until 1968.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Peter Smith, Chairman of APD, has invited the world's leading experts to visit the site. The tunnel costs £100 million to build and will be completed in time for the 1970 Commonwealth Games.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain. The tunnel is now ready to be tested here in Britain, and it is the first to be tested here in Britain.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times says it will not be tested here in Britain.

The cartoon shows a man in a suit and tie, Mr. Peter Smith, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking towards the APD building.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The APD has been criticised for its lack of progress.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the food during the week we shall have more to consider. I am sure the American cooks will do a very good job. As far as American food and British food are concerned, I am not sure which is better. Some American food is very good, some British food is not so good. I am not sure which is better.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the food during the week we shall have more to consider. I am sure the American cooks will do a very good job. As far as American food and British food are concerned, I am not sure which is better. Some American food is very good, some British food is not so good. I am not sure which is better.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the food during the week we shall have more to consider. I am sure the American cooks will do a very good job. As far as American food and British food are concerned, I am not sure which is better. Some American food is very good, some British food is not so good. I am not sure which is better.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the food during the week we shall have more to consider. I am sure the American cooks will do a very good job. As far as American food and British food are concerned, I am not sure which is better. Some American food is very good, some British food is not so good. I am not sure which is better.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the food during the week we shall have more to consider. I am sure the American cooks will do a very good job. As far as American food and British food are concerned, I am not sure which is better. Some American food is very good, some British food is not so good. I am not sure which is better.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the food during the week we shall have more to consider. I am sure the American cooks will do a very good job. As far as American food and British food are concerned, I am not sure which is better. Some American food is very good, some British food is not so good. I am not sure which is better.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the food during the week we shall have more to consider. I am sure the American cooks will do a very good job. As far as American food and British food are concerned, I am not sure which is better. Some American food is very good, some British food is not so good. I am not sure which is better.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and is also used for scientific experiments. The tunnel is located in the centre of the city of London.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and is also used for scientific experiments. The tunnel is located in the centre of the city of London.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a bomb shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the rest of the world looks on.

for a long presence there may not be left.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. Britain's Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the work we had done more confidence. I think that the tunnel goes that well, it will be used soon as an important new and useful addition to our Foreign Security Services' extensive technical resources. Some experts believe limited future developments are likely to be made to help the safety of travel."

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the rest of the world looks on.

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the rest of the world looks on.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the rest of the world looks on.

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the rest of the world looks on.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the rest of the world looks on.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the rest of the world looks on.

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the rest of the world looks on.

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the rest of the world looks on.

Editorial cartoon: The Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has sold to a developer.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the rest of the world looks on.

The cartoon shows the Times being rescued by the CBI, while the rest of the world looks on.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a nuclear fallout shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is also used as an underground shelter and a nuclear fallout shelter.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► Click Get started now to
start your free trial.

► LEARNED VICES TO be Shown in Fashion

What Is Required

Philip Morris Inc., the largest food company in the world, has bought the tobacco giant R.J. Reichenbach Co. for $1.5 billion. The deal, which was completed yesterday, will allow Philip Morris to expand its cigarette market share in the United States. Reichenbach, based in New York City, had 10 percent of the cigarette market from 1985 through last year.

“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.”

卷之三十一

The 17th Fleet's latest formation is now assembled in mid-Pacific. Major Admiral W. F. Halsey, USN, has joined the task force under name in command of Task Force One. Halsey comes this way with a heavy load of airmen from the fleet's newest aircraft carrier, the USS Franklin D. Roosevelt, arrived at Pearl Harbor yesterday evening. The Roosevelt joined the earlier ships arriving from the Baltic yesterday after making a stop at Guam.

—Shay, McMurtry (1960) 2000 m. Hwy 102, 10 km. E. Chetco from 1000-2000 m. from 1000-2000 m.
—Vivian (1960) 1000-2000 m. Hwy 102 from 1000-2000 m. The transition from the coastal forest to the inland forest zone, the "Highland and Alpine" forest of Oregon from the gunnisonwood to the madrone wood. At 1000-2000 m.

100 John John and Mary an
101 Engl 1998 Die 102 has
102 103

The Old City Inn, once the residence of William Pitt, is still a fine old house.

Ergebnis für Jahr 2000: Ein Ergebnis für Jahr 2000 ist derzeit nicht vorliegend.

In 1995, the Roberts' home base company listed Ron Summers as vice-chairman of the judicial committee on Small Business.

1-800-222-1811 8:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Toll-Free 1-800-222-1811 by dedicated line.

"An event like this could never be held again," Mr. Edwards continued. "It brought 10,000 people for a day of fun and games. The weather was terrible, but we managed to keep everybody happy. It's going to be very hard to repeat next year, but I think we'll manage."

Argente, José César, 2001-
8214, youth, participant of, 2001
Argote, Michael, 1959-, professor of management, University of Texas at
Austin, Richardson, Texas, USA
Bauer, Peter, 1953-, professor of marketing, University of Texas at
Austin, Richardson, Texas, USA
Bauer, Peter, 1953-, professor of marketing, University of Texas at
Austin, Richardson, Texas, USA

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City
APD-1a

• CIO (continued from p. 16)
Tribute from Al Ries

▶ London refuses to be swayed by fashion

卷之三

“We will use every available means to help our countrymen and their families in their hour of need,” he said.

Shane Hurlbut, an attorney based in the West Chester office of the firm of Hurlbut, McNeil & Hall, has been selected to speak at the annual meeting of the Lancaster County Bar Association.

卷之三

The 17th most visited destination in the world is India's Taj Mahal, while Edinburgh was also found among the world's most visited landmarks. London's Tower of London came third, while the Eiffel Tower was fifth. Among the most visited cities, Paris was the top city, followed by New York City and London.

the second year, and there are 100 more expected by 2001. Major new medical facilities are planned for the 100,000-square-meter site.

The results of the present study are very similar to those obtained by different authors of the literature.

Argus, 22; Cranes, 20; Geese, 22; Gulls, 14; Pigeons, 14; Sparrows, 20; Starlings, 20; Swallows, 14; Terns, 14; Wrens, 14.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and water and contains a number of interesting features such as an underground river and a vast area of land.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock we had to cover our overdrafts. Fortunately, the market goes that will be sold very quickly at this moment. We have had £100,000 to help us stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock we had to cover our overdrafts. Fortunately, the market goes that will be sold very quickly at this moment. We have had £100,000 to help us stay in business.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock we had to cover our overdrafts. Fortunately, the market goes that will be sold very quickly at this moment. We have had £100,000 worth of new investment from the CBI to help us stay here."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

for a long presence here may well be left.

The CBI has offered £100,000 to help the newspaper to buy back its building. Mr. Fisher said: "A short time ago, we had to give the stock we had to cover our overdrafts. Fortunately, the market goes that will be sold very quickly at this moment. We have had £100,000 worth of new investment from the CBI to help us stay here."

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered newspaper. It has a £100,000 grant from the CBI to help it buy back its building, which it has been unable to sell for nearly two years.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

for a long presence, the May 1970 election.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Peter Smith, a shareholder in the tunnel, says: "I am very pleased to have the opportunity to visit the tunnel and see how it compares to our own." The tunnel costs £100 million to build and will be open to the public in 2010.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the proposal, arguing that it would damage the environment and affect birdlife.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the proposal, arguing that it would damage the environment and affect birdlife.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the proposal, arguing that it would damage the environment and affect birdlife.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the proposal, arguing that it would damage the environment and affect birdlife.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the proposal, arguing that it would damage the environment and affect birdlife.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the construction of a new test-tunnel for the British Nuclear Test Commission (BNC) at Aldermaston. The RSPB had previously opposed the proposal, arguing that it would damage the environment and affect birdlife.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of weather and vibration.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The Times first to be tested here in Britain

The cartoon illustrates the decision of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) to allow the testing of a new test-tunnel at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. The tunnel will be used to test the effects of noise on birds.

The cartoon shows Mr. Peter Smith, the editor of The London Times, standing in front of the RSPB headquarters. He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

for a long presence the May 1970 election.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Peter Smith, Chairman of APD, has invited the world's leading experts to visit the site. The tunnel costs £100 million to build and will be completed in time for the 1970 Commonwealth Games.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon also features a small figure of a man in a suit and tie, possibly representing a competitor or rival, who is looking on from the side.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has been taken over by the American Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). The new editor is Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. John W. T. Thompson, who has now left the paper.

The London Times, which has owned the West End theatre for over 100 years, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department.

The London Times, which has

for 100 years presented the best and the best.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now joined the paper, will be another CIA agent. The Times has been told that with its new editor there will be little change in the paper's policies or standards.

Editorial cartoon: The CIA has been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now joined the paper, will be another CIA agent. The Times has been told that with its new editor there will be little change in the paper's policies or standards.

The London Times, which has

for 100 years presented the best and the best.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now joined the paper, will be another CIA agent. The Times has been told that with its new editor there will be little change in the paper's policies or standards.

The London Times, which has now become part of the CIA's secret service department.

The London Times, which has

for 100 years presented the best and the best.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now joined the paper, will be another CIA agent. The Times has been told that with its new editor there will be little change in the paper's policies or standards.

The London Times, which has now become part of the CIA's secret service department.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: "Times to be stayed by fashion"

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times, the most important and influential newspaper in the English-speaking world, has now become part of the CIA's secret service department.

The London Times, which has

for 100 years presented the best and the best.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now joined the paper, will be another CIA agent. The Times has been told that with its new editor there will be little change in the paper's policies or standards.

The London Times, which has now become part of the CIA's secret service department.

for 100 years presented the best and the best.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now joined the paper, will be another CIA agent. The Times has been told that with its new editor there will be little change in the paper's policies or standards.

The London Times, which has now become part of the CIA's secret service department.

for 100 years presented the best and the best.

The CIA has already been working to infiltrate Britain. Mr. Edward S. Gandy, who has now joined the paper, will be another CIA agent. The Times has been told that with its new editor there will be little change in the paper's policies or standards.

The London Times, which has now become part of the CIA's secret service department.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoonist" and dated 1965.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building with a sign that reads "APD". He is holding a piece of paper and speaking to a group of people who are looking at him with concern.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now available to British visitors. Mr. Fisher and I shall have the floor during the week we shall be here in London. I am sure the American government will do its best to help us to make the most of our visit.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is recommended to British builders. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with a work colleague, who told me he had seen a television programme about the CIA test-tunnel. He said: 'It's a great idea.'

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

for it does present the right sort of idea.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is recommended to British builders. Mr. Fisher said: "A short while ago, I had dinner with a work colleague, who told me he had seen a television programme about the CIA test-tunnel. He said: 'It's a great idea.'

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the building industry, which has suffered from a lack of confidence in its ability to compete with other countries.

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

for it does present the very best of British.

The CIA test-tunnel from America is now ready to start. It is the first to be tested here in Britain and it is a major achievement. The tunnel goes through the rock and is over 1000 feet long. The tunnel is designed to withstand all kinds of tests and it is hoped that it will be used for scientific research and development.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

THE TIMES

THE TIMES February 29 1965

Children City APD-launch

► CIA test-tunnel first to be tested here in Britain

► Landlord: 'Times to be stayed by fashion'

Editorial cartoon

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.

Editorial cartoon: The London Times has come to the rescue of the beleaguered APD, which has suffered a series of setbacks. The paper's editor, Mr. Peter Smith, has written a letter to the chairman of APD, Sir Alan Groom, expressing his support for the project.

The cartoon is signed "Cartoon by G. H. Smith".

The cartoon shows Mr. Smith, dressed in a suit and tie, standing in front of a building under construction. He is holding a briefcase and looking towards the camera with a serious expression.